

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS – DR. JOAN MANUEL TRESSERRAS AND DR.
CHERYCE VON XYLANDER

Dr. Joan Manuel Tresserras holds a Ph.D. in Information Sciences and he has served as the Catalan Minister of Culture and Media. He is a Professor in the Department of Journalism and Communication Sciences at the Autonomous University of Barcelona (UAB). He has served as the head of the Department of Journalism and Communication Sciences at the UAB, the coordinator of the Journalism degree at the UAB, a member of the Advisory Commission on Institutional Advertising of the Government of Catalonia, a board member of the Catalan Radio and Television Corporation and the Audiovisual Council of Catalonia, the president of the Panel for Diversity in Audiovisuals and a member of the Mixed Committee for Transfers between the Spanish and Catalan governments.

Dr. Cheryce von Xylander is a Lecturer in Philosophy at the Technical University of Darmstadt. Her work has embraced the aesthetic ramifications of technology and the technical constitution of the aesthetic. Conceiving cognition as cultural practice, she has researched such diverse phenomena as the early psychiatric asylum, the mechanics of organized nostalgia, and the ontology of the cardboard box. She holds a B.S. from Stanford University (Symbolic Systems), an M. Phil from Cambridge University (History and Philosophy of Science), UK, and a Ph.D. from the University of Chicago (History).
